THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY is published by The Classical Association of the Atlantic States, weekly, on Saturdays, from October to May inclusive, except in weeks in which there is a legal or school holiday, at Teachers College, 525 West 120th Street, New York City.

All persons within the territory of the Association who are interested in the language, the literature, the life and the art of ancient Greece and ancient Rome, whether actually engaged in teaching the Classics or not, are eligible to membership in the Association. Application for membership may be made to the Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Knapp, Barnard College, New York. The annual dues (which cover also the subscription to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY), are two dollars. Within the territory covered by the Association (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia) subscription is possible to individuals only through membership. To institutions in this territory the subscription price is one dollar per year.

Outside the territory of the Association the subscription price of The Classical Weekly is one dollar per year.

Caesar for Sight Reading

By Towle and Jenks

CLOTH .40

This book includes the most interesting portions of Caesar, and is so carefully edited that the class which has been well drilled on the first two books of the Gallic War will be able to read this readily and with pleasure. Special stress is laid on acquiring a vocabulary.

HALE'S FIRST LATIN BOOK

Miss Elsie Garland Hobson of the Francis Shimer Academy, Mount Carroll, Illinois, writes us: "My first year class has covered thirty-six lessons in the First Latin Book in eleven weeks. I have never had a class that learned as much Latin in the same length of time, nor one that could use its knowledge so intelligently. I find the book lucid and well graded.

In Hale's Latin Composition Part One, based on Caesar, the easy sentences and adequate notes on difficult constructions make it a very satisfactory text-book. It is not over the heads or beyond the powers of an average second year class."

"A Latin Grammar," by PROFESSOR H. E. BURTON, of Dartmouth College, is the best grammar for both secondary schools and colleges on the market to-day:

In it Latin seems more like a living language than in any other grammar.

Its treatment of the formation of words under the separate parts of speech is clear and logical.

It has a most effective method of showing the relative importance of the facts stated.
